

Holding On To You (Temika Moore ©2002 Pink Panna Music Publishing/ASCAP)

Chorus: I'm holding, holding, holding on to you
Life's just not same, without you
Repeat

Verse: I find, myself, holding on to what's left
Now that you've gone so far from here
You're always on my mind
Thinking of you keeps me up at night
And I'm filled up with memories of happy times

I remember the moments that we shared
And your presence fills the air, and
My heart longs to have you near
Ooh, that's why...

Chorus: I'm holding, holding, holding on to you
Life's just not same, without you
Repeat

Verse: Oh, why, why, has my life become so strange
The coldness of the world seems more today
Nothing can fill the void inside
The thought of not having you in my life
Overwhelms me and it won't go away

You were put on this earth for me
You taught me love for myself and dignity
Because of you I'm happy being me
Ooh, that's why...

Chorus: I'm holding, holding, holding on to you
Life's just not same, without you
Repeat

Bridge: You were a gift to this world
Your love was greater than I deserved
Your spirit's still here with me
Guiding and watching me
And for this I'm so thankful, thankful

Chorus: So I'll keep holding, holding, holding on to you
Life's just not same, without you
Repeat
