

Testimony (Temika Moore/ ©2002 Pink Panna Music Publishing/ASCAP)

Verse:

This song is all about me
And all the changes I've gone through internally
Trying to find my thing
Trying to make a living
While my heart longed to sing

I was so tired of being forced into a life
That another leads
I needed to be free to make choices
That honors my individuality

At the heart of every moment
Embedded in my soul,
"Singing ain't gonna keep a roof over my head," I'm told
Folks got so many 'pinions about my needs,
Some I'd wish they'd keep

Chorus:

This is my testimony
This is my testimony
This is my testimony
This is my test-imony

Verse:

Can you understand my pain?
Trying to fit into a size 7, knowing I wear an 8
Trying to be someone else
Causes pain in itself
Wearing down the spirit that's left

I had to ease the buzzing in my ears
And get clear about my life
And what I want it to be
It took a while to break free of naysayers and negativity

I share my story of an inner struggle
And the journey that one goes through
Deciding to live my life
Let the real me come through!

Chorus:

This is my testimony
This is my testimony
This is my testimony
This is my test-imony
